

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Paul McLellan was born June 22, 1917, at Dupree, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Paul was sworn into the Marine Corps Reserve on April 4, 1942, and began a career of service to his country earning two Purple Hearts, a Bronze Star Medal with a "V" and the Navy Cross. He retired in February 1968 as a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Marine Corps; and,

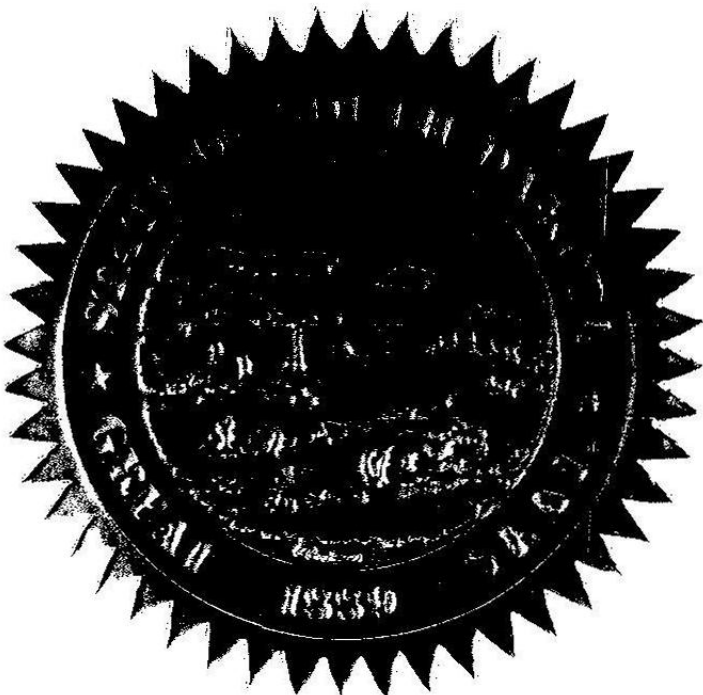

Whereas, Paul will observe his 90th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 22, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join his friends and relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
